

Fact Sheet McCormick

- General Facts

- Home to up to 233 MIT students
- Only all-female residence hall at MIT
- Built in 1963; just celebrated 50th anniversary!
- East Tower is six floors with all singles and a penthouse for common use
- West Tower is six floors with a singles, doubles, triples and a penthouse for common use
- Annex is 3 floors with singles, doubles, triples

- Facilities

- 2 spacious living rooms for talking with friends, relaxing, and p-setting
- 9 quiet study rooms for individual or small group work
- 2 beautiful penthouses with spectacular views of Boston skyline
- 1-2 kitchens on every floor
- Large Dining Hall with variety of food options
- Penthouse gym with lots of equipment
- 5 pianos and a music practice room
- Athena cluster (computer lab) with printer
- 9 washing machines and 10 dryers in basement Laundry Rooms
- Game Room, currently being renovated
- Country Kitchen for cooking in large groups
- Dance Studio on first floor

- Support System

- Housemasters, Kathy Hess and Charles Stewart, create supportive and welcoming environment and advocate for students on administrative issues
- Graduate Resident Tutors are graduate students who live in dorm and help to facilitate community development and serve as mentors for undergrads
- Residential Life Area Director, Lauren Piontkoski, serves as a resource to students and helps keep everything in McCormick running smoothly
- Residence Based Advising strengthens community in dorm and helps freshmen meet each other
- Residential Associate Advisors are upperclassmen who work with faculty administrators to mentor 8-10 freshmen

- Our favorite things!

- Centrally located on campus- near other dorms, student center, Kresge auditorium, and Lobby 7
- Delicious and healthy food in Dining Hall as well as kitchens on every floor
- Beautiful facilities for fun with friends or quiet studying
- Very active House Government that holds lots of events and gives students many opportunities to get involved
- Lot of social outings, study breaks, and other events going on such as Fall Formal, Pi Day study break, and Relaxation nights before finals
- Welcoming but quiet environment makes it a perfect home